Instructions for completing the form

Personal details

Fill in the student's name and personal identity code, the category of the driving licence held by the student, and the category of the licence aimed for on this occasion. If instruction was provided by a driving instructor, fill in the instructor's name and code. If the student was instructed under an instruction permit, fill in the instructor's name and personal identity code. The form should be signed by the party responsible for driving instruction activities, a person authorised by them, or the responsible instructor operating under a driving instruction permit. If the student is completing several categories, a separate form should be filled in for each.

As the start date of instruction, fill in the date on which theory or driving instruction was given for the first time. The start date of training provided for a candidate for a first driving licence or risk identification training are not taken into account here.

Instruction details

Enter the total number of theory lessons taken by the learner before their first theory test, and the total number of driving lessons taken by the learner before their first driving test. The hours of training provided for a candidate for a first driving licence or risk identification training are not taken into account here.

In sections Hours at driving school and Hours under an instruction permit, fill in the total number of instruction hours completed in that form of instruction, excluding the risk identification training hours. In the section Hours in a simulator, specify how many instruction hours of the total number of hours were completed in a simulator.

When acquiring a category B driving licence, a certificate of risk identification training must be attached. Date and sign as described above.

Self-evaluation

This section is for student to fill in before their driving test.

The assessment scale is 1 Poor... 5 Very good.

Driver examination certificate

This section will be completed by the examiner once the student has passed their driving test.
